

WHAT IS CEDO?

THE INTERCULTURAL CENTER
FOR THE STUDY OF DESERTS & OCEANS IS...

- A COMMUNITY CENTER, OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Earth-Ship Visitor's Center, EcoShop, Natural History Talks, Exhibits, Coastal Clean-Up, Wet Feet Ocean Camp, EcoAdventures & more!

- A FIELD STATION IN PUERTO PEÑASCO

A base camp for visiting school groups to explore the desert and sea: Volcanic craters, sand dunes, RAMSAR Wetlands & Biosphere Reserves, UNESCO World Heritage Sites, and one of the world's most extensive rocky intertidal zones.

- AN ACCLAIMED RESEARCH FACILITY

Conducting & hosting studies on fisheries, biodiversity, climate change, pollution, socio-economic systems & more.

- A BINATIONAL NONPROFIT ORGANIZATION

Working across borders to achieve sustainable, community-based management of the upper Gulf of California & Sonoran Desert region, its natural resources and ecosystem services.

"40 Years fostering healthy ecosystems and vibrant communities in the Gulf of California and Sonoran Desert!"

Visit CEDO to see our famous fin whale skeleton, endangered desert fish ponds and other ecosystem - exhibits; join us for a public natural history talk or sign up for a guided EcoTour!

Guided EcoAdventures in Puerto Peñasco, Sonora, MX

Experience Your Ecosystem.

Join us for a naturalist-guided adventure in our region's many spectacular and diverse habitats: the Gulf of California's vast rocky intertidal zone, offshore island reserves, estuaries, wetlands & the volcanic craters and sand dunes of the Pinacate and Great Desert of Altar, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and the heart of the Sonoran Desert.

Why Choose CEDO NaturArte?

Our award-winning EcoTourism Corridor brings visitors together with community enterprises that are committed to providing sustainable and low-impact tourism services. By participating in our EcoTours, you are helping CEDO to build local capacity and stewardship of the natural habitats and species of the Sonoran Desert and Sea of Cortéz.

So bring your friends and family and...

Participate in Conservation!
